

FIG. 1. Three stages in the iterative solution of the sea level equation (6). The contours show lines of equal percentage change in sea level with respect to the change that would happen if the mass were distributed as a uniform sheet of water. (a) first iteration, (b) second iteration, (c) third iteration.